

St John's United Church of Christ

Permission to Participate in Off-Site Activities

Dear Parent/Guardian:

For a child/youth to participate in this activity held at a different time or place other than the regular meeting, written permission is required. This permission slip, signed by a parent or legal guardian, must be in the hands of the leader or person in charge prior to the activity. Please note, for this activity, two St. John's contacts are listed. These are the persons to contact in case of an emergency and who will contact you in case of a change in plans.
