

St. John's Camp

St. John's Camp offers opportunities for children, youth and adults to enjoy nature and realize a heightened awareness of our relationship with God. This camp is wholly owned and operated by St. John's United Church of Christ. Since 1949, thousands of children have enjoyed a unique summer experience at St. John's camp.

Registration Form: See church website or contact Church office.

Bus transportation for Camp Kum-Ba-Yah and Camp Noah is provided each day from St. John's U.C.C., or Sunnyway Foods on Lincoln Way West or Milky Way Restaurant in Fort Loudon. Check the registration form for times.

The optional Wed. night sleepover of Camp Kum-Ba-Yah requires parental permission granted by checking the 'overnight option' on the registration form. There is an additional $10 fee.

St. John's Camp facility includes a modern kitchen and dining room, cabins, outdoor chapel, nature center, open-air pavilion, hot showers, basketball and volleyball courts and a baseball field.

Weekend Adventure

June 21-23, 2024

Grades 6,7,8

New this year, St. John's Camp is offering a Weekend Adventure for older children. Campers will arrive from 4-6 pm Friday and depart after lunch on Sunday. Come and delight in God's special creation and enjoy nature. Campers will enjoy camp songs, camp fires, fun games, create neat crafts and swim at the Gap. While at camp, make new friends, learn about nature, explore the beautiful outdoors, and participate in the outdoor fun in the beautiful mountains.

Cost $50

Camp Kum-Ba-Yah

June 24-28, 2024

Grades 3,4,5

This year Camp Kum Ba Yah is a day camp with an optional sleepover on Wednesday night. Caring for the environment and learning about native PA wildlife will be our focus. Campers will find the wonder in nature and spend their days outdoors swimming, praying, singing, playing outdoor games, and making new friends! The optional sleepover ($10) includes dinner, campfire, s'mores, and a tasty camp breakfast. Bus transportation each day is available, as explained on the other side of this brochure.

Cost $125

Come and Enjoy God's Backyard in the Mountain!

Camp Noah

June 24-28, 2024

Grades K,1,2

Camp Noah is an exciting day camp for our youngest campers, those who have completed Kindergarten, 1st or 2nd grade. Spend the week enjoying St. John's Camp's beautiful mountain setting near Cowan's Gap State Park. Insects will be our focus as we learn about nature, do arts and crafts, explore the outdoors, go swimming and participate in all that St. John's camp has to offer. Bus transportation each day is available, as explained on the other side.
