*CALL TO WORSHIP

posted on The Minor Keys blog

As followers of Christ, we are called to bring a hopeful understanding of our world declaring that God called the created universe "good."

We are called to bring this hope in God with us wherever we go declaring that God makes all things new again.

Jesus taught that we should love God and love one another.

So let's join together in our love of God to worship and give thanks.

CALL TO CONFESSION

Trusting in God's goodness and mercy, let us confess our sins.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

written by John Birch

Creator God, forgive our moments of ingratitude, the spiritual blindness that prevents us from appreciating the wonder that is this world, the endless cycle of nature, of life and death and rebirth. Forgive us for taking without giving, reaping without sowing. Open our eyes to see, our lips to praise, and our hands to share. May our feet tread lightly on the path we tread, and our footsteps be worthy of following, for they lead to you. Amen.

ASSURANCE OF GRACE

God makes a way in the desert and streams in the wasteland; God makes all things new. God offers us a way home: rejoice in the forgiveness that God gives us and be renewed.

SCRIPTURE READING

Jeremiah 17:5-8; Job 12:7-10

RESPONSIVE LITANY

"Liturgy of Creation," posted on the Third Space blog

In the beginning, all was darkness and God said, "let there be light," and because God had said it, there was light.

In the beginning, all was silence and God sang the song of creation, and because God sang, all the stars and spheres vibrated to the music of God.

In the beginning, all was still and God laughed, and because God laughed, the waters took up the roar and the ripple of it;
and ebbed and flowed and seeped and swirled and delighted in the ways of its being.

In the beginning, all was dull and God painted, and because God painted, the sky became blue, and purple, and pink, and rainbows hung there. The grass became green and flowers and butterflies danced in the drips and settled like jewels on the earth.

In the beginning, all was unconscious and God breathed, and because God breathed, men and women woke up from their sleeping, they breathed the very life of God and stood in wonder before the work of God's hands. They beheld the glory of God in all that God had made and they saw that it was very good.

A Place in the Choir (Bill Staines)

All God's crea-tures got a place in the choir, some sing low and some sing high-er, some sing out loud on the 6 te - le-phone wire, and some just clap their hands, or paws, or an - y-thing they've got now.

Chorus:

All God's creatures got a place in the choir,
Some sing low and some sing higher
Some sing out loud on the telephone wire,
And some just clap their hands, or paws, or anything they've got. (repeat)

Listen to the bass, it's one on the bottom,
Where the bullfrog croaks and the hippopotamus
Moans and groans with a big to-do,
And the old cow just goes moo.

The dogs and the cats they take up the middle
While the honeybee hums and the cricket fiddles
And the donkey brays and the pony neighs,
And the old grey badger sighs.

Chorus

Listen to the top with the little bird singing
On the melodies and the high notes ringing
And the hoot owl cries over everything,
And the blackbird disagrees.

Singing in the night-time, singing in the day,
The little duck quacks and he's on his way
And the otter hasn't got much to say
And the porcupine talks to himself.

Chorus

It's a simple song, a living song everywhere
By the ox and the fox and the grizzly bear
The grumpy alligator and the hawk above,
The sly old weasel and the tutledove.

Chorus

This popular hymn by songwriter James K. Manley grew out of a sabbatical leave at the School of Theology at Claremont, California. It was first sung at Waiokeola Congregational Church in Honolulu, after which Manley added the fourth stanza at the suggestion of a church member.
